Let us cling to the Constitution as the mariner clings to the last plank when the night and the tempest close

SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 21, 1855. Sixteenth Commencement of the Indiana Asbury University. jected to the usual ordeal of a public exami- and crown you with eternal life." nation on the 9th and 13thdays of July, in- The hour for parting had arrived, and unclusive, conveying the happiest impressions der the influence of the mellifluous music of to the assembled auditors. The Anniversary Mrs. Prof. HIBBEN and the Misses ARNOLD and exercises of the Platonean and Philological RANKIN, which pervaded the hearts of the an Society was addressed on the evening of departed for their homes. the 17th inst, by an Alumnus of the Institution, Hon. JAMES HARLAN, the young and talented United States Senator elect, from the State of Iowa.

In Mr. H.'s address which, it is said, was one of great beauty and elegance, the legal profession was ably defended against the aspersions not unfrequently thrown upon it by the Clergy of the country, who too often arrogate to themselves the wisdom and virtue which may not unfairly be presumed to be divided between them and their learned cotempora- Governor Reeder's Message to the ries. Of course, for would not venture to insinuate, that either of those essential attributes of character are enjoyed by persons outside of speaks as follows:

untried ocean of real life, and trust for his

rencil of an artiste the objects of living

the "Triumphs of Revelation." Mr. HARVEY nent character and high authority of a State Life"-James R. Baxter, of Jefferson coun- meantime, however, a territorial Legislature ty, treated upon the "Science of Government" may undoubtedly act upon the question to a -WILL L. LITTLE, of Newport, spoke of limited and partial extent, and may temporaright of the Soul," and "The Inefficiency of form with all the force and effect of any othunaided Genius" were the subjects, respec er Legislative act binding until repealed by tively, of Mr. W. B. BIDDLE, of New Mays- the same power that enacted it. ville, and J. D. A. Warsson, Esq., of Waveland. The Valedictory was delivered by Mr. PATTERSON McNUTT, of Posey Hills.

men just emerging from the sacred Halls of territory. The census returns which are sub-Learning, with their "blushing honors thick mitted for your inspection, contain a consider- political feelings which govern this man Hoss, upon them," and could, with more case as the place of emigration, ages, occupations, sion of Know Nothing proscription gnaws his praise, than attempt to impress upon their sand one hundred and thirty-eight males, and actions as well as his skin. minds an old maxim, which the Faculty three thousand three hundred and eighty- For a long time he moved in secret, until should have taught them, and the observance three females. And it is a fact worthy of reof which, in the future, may prevent the in- ritory, that they are not as usual collected He promised them wonderful improvements trusion of petty sorrows to themselves and about one point or along a frontier line, but and advantages if they would assist him in State. Abolitionism was the engrossing topic or beautiful spot of earth than the grounds even the few Know Nothings who were disappointments to their friends. Had they are dispersed over a district of more than effecting a change. He found three or four remembered that " whatever is worth doing at 15,000 square miles. This state of things al- weak-minded inmates whom he used as head all, is worth doing right," the orations they nevertheless gratifying, as it indicates that poster, and who now is engaged in sowing mencement exercises in which they were ex- est, promising an early developement of our and deluded pupils. pected to display whatever genius they pos- resources. zessed-would, at least, have been perfectly WEST POINT ACADEMY .- Many applications some time, but he office them committed to memory. We listened to no speech within the College walls which, in speech wall was a speech within the College walls which, in speech wall was a speech wa of reason, was such as to justify the expectaThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as their advocate and mouthThe fact is, the highest degree of physical they had chosen as the physical they had chosen as the physical they had chosen as the tions we had indulged; yet, many truths were uttered, and many thoughts, teeming to a pretty pass to be officered by the term "Dumb Oracle," way, have a practical union, which, without the such castle as Chase and Wilson. What his recommendation and the such castle as Chase and Wilson. What his recommendation are the such castle as Chase and Wilson. What his recommendation are the such castle as their advocate and mouth coming to a pretty pass to be officered by recline during the balance of his days within much annoyed by the term "Dumb Oracle," way, have a practical union, which, without kind feeling observed. With a view of mainwere uttered, and many thoughts, teering discipline of west roll. The students are lor--his defenctions of duty were all set forth way, have a practical union, which, will you endorse his moss-grown Rosabower, there to abandon which we applied to it some time ago. That mortifying the pride of either section, or in- taining that harmony so dear to all, we should with spiritual dews, and giving birth, in a the duty of the soldier. They are obliged to and they finally settled the same by sustain-The effect of all, however, was destroyed and motive of health, cheerfulness and mental sur.ng Mr. Ames. the auditor made painfully conscious of his vigor. It can never, in any degree, be relaxsublunary existence, by the frequent cessations ed in favor of the weak, for the country is in- on the 11th inst., and took full action upon of the speaker's voice in the midst of a picture of sublimity, and the repeated consulpicture of sublimity. tation of that very material object, the ever Institution is to train for their country's ser- than rank insubordination and mutiny i ready manuscript. We can scarcely imagine vice those on whom it can rely in exigences manifested and proclaimed by Hoss and his in what way the boasted benefits of the men- and danger. Let none but those who have dupes, and the people of the State are imtal discipline, cultivated by a long and arduous study of the Latin and Greek, is to be hood. Failure and dismssal assuredly await of these deluded persons without marking turned to a practical use, if the recipient all who, for want of health preparation, or their motives, and without pitying that measshall lack the capacity to hold in his memory ability, are not equal to meet the rigorous re- ure of mind which would prompt the breakthe substance and the words of a little speech Point.

Shall lack the capacity to hold in his memory quirements exacted of the pupils at West ing up of that harmony and peace which have feating the Democratic party so badly for, ceived with a hearty welcome.

mencement of the Asbury University. These young gentlemen, we are told, are men of talent and excellent scholars. If they have talent and excellent scholars. If they have the special to the shear of the Asbury University. These that organization the shearing league. It thus speaks of them:

There is nothing said or charged in the spectation and pride at the specta mencement of the Asbury University. These young gentlemen, we are told, are men of thus speaks of them: subjected themselves to criticism, it is the rehither and thither seeking who they may demunity and draw public attention to save your formula formula from the incendiary hands of ing included, the Company furnishing the sult of timidity, perhaps, or of inexperience in vour. When you see a thing having the appublic speaking, and not of incapacity. They pearance of being human, hang-dog expression. We say you felt the work is to be commenced at Coving- to speak is, shall the existence of slavery in the office of Secretary of State. You will slave States with a fearful vengeance and the office of slavery in the office of slav public speaking, and not of incapacity. They sion with sheep-like movement of the body, screen which will not be removed. Let them some sion with sheep-like movement of the body, not deceive themselves. Neither their profesting and will be steadily prosecuted to its comreceived their Diplomas with much grace and eyes like a sun-fish, sneaking about your door, sometimes as the provided them are no more, can you, will be done on the Divi-DANIEL CURRY. In conferring the degrees is one of the League. You can tell them in the President gave them his parting blessing a moment, if you but catch their eye; they in a brief but salutary exhortation. He hoped wither under your look, conscious of their inlege walls, would bear them, in the humble consciousness of intellectual power, through A HELLISH ACT .- The Buffalo Express of sions of error and the prejudice of ignorance. the torch was none other than the husband Yet it was their province to vindicate the truth of one of the victims, and the father of two -to act, and to act rightly, spreading about little girls, who perished in the flames .-

of knowledge. The President assured them that the cerimonies of the occasion were not bind his heart, more closely than before, to theirs-that wherever they should go his memory would linger about them. After much wholsome advice and many exquisite allusions to the past, the President bid his students adieu, with the beautiful benediction, The Classes of this Institution were sub- "May Heaven's eternal blessings be with you

Societies were fraught, we are told, with audience at intervals during the whole of much that was beautiful, and attended with the Commencement Exercises, the students incidents of thrilling interest. The Platone- and the people bid each other farewell, and charge of bigamy has six wives instead off with great "union and harmony," Fusion party of 1854, and that the same

"And so, without mere circumstance at all, I hold it lit, that we shake hands and part: You, as your business, and desire, shall point you; For every man hath business and desire, Such as it is,—and for my own poor part, Look you"—it is no matter what I do.

ten must desist for the present.

Legislation of Kansas. On the subject of slavery, the Governor the two professions; to the former of which Mr. "There are many specific subjects of Legisla-HARLAN, with great plausibility, attributed tion, some of which are expressly referred to the credit of making our laws, and testing them others spring from the necessities of our com -of purifying our laws and deciding them.

We reached Greencastle of the afternoon tion whether we shall build our government of Wednesday, 18th, too late to hear the inof Wednesday, 18th, too late to hear the in-auguration address of President Curry, but ernment as our fellow citizens of the States, during the progress of the graduating exer- with a far greater, if not an exclusive interest cises of the Law Department. Only three in the institutions and laws which are to exist of the graduates, Messrs. T. W. BENNETT, of among us, compelled alone to bear their bur-Wayne county, and James A. Chawley and wisdom, justice and fairness would dietate before! MARK T. DE MOTTE, of Greencastle, were that those laws and institutions inside of the present on the occasion. The speeches de- Constitution of the United States, should be livered by these young gentlemen embraced moulded by ourselves, stimulated by the abmany matters of fact, which possessed the than by the representatives or citizens of other credit of genuineness if not of novelty, al- States, who are no more competent to the The Republican, a Know Nothing newspaper, though all bore inexcusable marks of haste task than we—who have no stake with us in has been laboring to prejudice the public of composition. Taking Mr. Crawley's oration as a standard of the man, we should sion of Territorial Organic Act secures us the judge him to be possessed of some force of character and much originality of intellect.—

Let him fearlessly launch his bark upon the be attended with that excitement which is support to the God-sent impulses of his own incident to the agitation of the slavery quesintellect, and he will ride the raging waves, tion in the direction of an attack upon conand reach, without ship-wreck, the haven of stitutional rights. An agitation of that kind in the rast history of our country by the des-On Thursday evening the Philological Soci- tructive spirit of abolitionism can never be for sinister and political purposes, have for ety was addressed by another Alumnus of the productive of aught but evil, and is calcula-Institution, our young fellow-citizen, Mr. J. ted in an eminent degree to obscure the glo-S. TARKINGTON. The speaker discussed his ries of the past, to evoke the foulest spirit of subject-"Our Political Conscience"-in a country, and also to mar our brilliant future, masterly manner, dealing Herculian blows if not to endanger the existence of our chertheme, and painting in rainbow tints, with the emn compacts of the constitution and an attack upon the rights of the States which are guaranteed by it, can have no justification or thought, brought into existence through a excuse. This view of the case, however, is vivid and well educated imagination. Mr. not to be confounded with the discussion and TARKINGTON controls a rich voice, a correct settlement of the slavery question in our termodulation, and an elegant gesture. He beyoud doubt, is the making of one of the us as an open question by the legitimate acprominent orators of the State of Indiana. | tion of the Nation, and here it is not only the THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES, proper, privilege but the duty of every man to speak were undergone during the forenoon of his opinions freely and embedding the forenoon of bly and fairly. Advocate and opponent Thursday, the 19th inst. The graduating stand on the same ground and must mutualclass consisted of eight young gentlemen, ly concede to each other the identical measeach of whom addressed the assembled mul- ures of right which they claim for themselves. titude upon the subjects and in the order Freedom of opinion and freedom of discus-essence of republicanism at all times are pe-Mr. B. W. SMITH, of Monticello, spoke of culiarly to be respected here. The perma-H. Ketth, of Bloomfield, selected "Action-Our Duty" for his subject-Mr. John P. a direct vote of the people of the territory, in-dicate that event as a signal occasion for the Rous, of Vevay, spoke of the "Mystery of decision of the peculiar question. In the "Our Age," whilst "To Conquor-the birth- the territory, and an absolute or modified the provisions of the act of Congress, exhib- Democrats of the city. Sixteen of them were its a return of two thousand nine hundred thus presented at the last election for Mayor.

The writer is half disposed to slightly and four qualified voters, and an entire popu- and their votes were properly refused by John the performances enumerated .- lation of eight thousand five hundred and Coburn, Esq., as being illegal, although they We would not unnecessarily wound the officers, soldiers and the employees of the which Mr. C. himself voted -Mr. Coburn besensitive feelings of the young gentle- army of the United States, not residing in the ing a Fusionist and comfort, pass them by with a little faint &c. This population consists of five thou- soul, and its poisonous influence colors his attempted to deliver-that part of the Com- our territory has many points of strong inter- mutiny and discontent among the confiding exhibited indications of peculiar promise be plored to redress their complaints and terrible encouraged to aspire to that exalted brother-ral and not to apply particularly and specific responsibility, and the Carson League, styles the members of the Carson that organization the sneaking league. It shame and the disgrace.

influences received whilst in the genial pursuit deed?

A careful estimate shows that the war has already cost the billigerant nations a milion lives .- Telegraphic news by Canada.

If this is true, how terrible the thought apolis, last Friday, (hangman's day) was a and how awful the responsibility which large one, made up, however, mainly of the rests on those who have caused and who the numerous railways now leading to that some idea of the desolation. The horrors of and glad of an opportunity to have a pleasure And we may add for their encouragement

Proof is accumulating that Nathan try. Though it numbered its thousands, and Brown, now in jail in New Albany, on a though what they termed their "proceedings" chinery of Know Nothingism controlled the

This is the same "Nathan Brown" who tions were adopted, as a matter of course, stick a pin at this point. went to Floyd County as a Know Nothing without one in fifty knowing or caring what meeting of the Board of Trustees of Lord in true Know Nothing style in the way Abolition, Prohibitory-liquor-law platform.

dianapolis on the 13th. It says: probably as strong as could be made under national, and the Federal Government should carried into successful operation. the circumstances, taking into consideration have no responsibility for it. In New Hampthat "Sam" had his back broken the day shire in 1835, the Legislature declared by an

For the State Sentinel.

The Blind Asylum Conspiracy. The public have had intimations for some time past, that a state of trouble and confusion existed in the Blind Asylum of the State. tendent, the Rev. Mr. Arnes, had acted in such way and munner, in his official capacity, stitution. No charge of corruption, of misneither could any such charge have been made such as we have seen industriously prosecuted in truth or with justice. The whole amount of complaint is mere grumbling by those, who, several months set their hearts upon removing Mr. Ames, by misrepresentation and false several of whom desire to fill his place .-There are men engaged in this pitiful undertaking whose souls and motives are alone measured by the value of a cent or the gratification of a low political and persona! malice. I speak knowingly, when I assert that one the Teachers in the institution, who is a Know Nothing in politics, and a base hypocrite in religious profession, has been for a dice the minds of a portion of the students against Mr. Ames. He has filled them with unfavorable impressions, and has used, as his auxiliaries, Know Nothing influences, personal persuasions, unjust and false aspersions, and a studied system of treachery and de-

There are other men, holding, in some inness, and who have advised and counselled the pupils of the Asylum. Even those who profess to be ministers of the Gospel of Christ, have urged mutiny and disobedience in the school, for the avowed purpose of getting up a muss, whereby public sympathy might be nyoked in behalf of their misguided and misdirected dupes.

Pupils in the institution have been in structed by their Know Nothing teacher, Mr. Hoss, that they were entitled to all the privileges and political rights of citizens of the polls, attended by this same Hoss, with tick able amount of statistical information, such in his assaults upon Mr. Ames. The corremark as peculiar to a great extent of this ter- victims with a portion of his own venom .though it has its inconveniences at present, is conspirators, one of whom is an arrant im-

Many of the schemes and workings of these discontents were known to Mr. Ames for

PLAIN TRUTH.

THE TRUE DOCTRINE.—The Richmond their teeth on the floor of the Senate as bly increased, for which vigorous efforts will

AN INSINUATION .- A Saratoga editor, in to gain by uniting with the Abolitionists? cured on the afternoon of the 4th.

Weekly State Sentinel. The Fusion Abolition gathering at Indian-

The Abolition Convention.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 23, 1855. The State Sentinel says, perhaps with ontinue this demoniac game. The estimate city. It is an easy matter now-a-days to get a little nearer approximation to the truth crowd present on that occasion, for, while the governed the Republican party of 1854, and we were happy to observe many gray-haired who prepared the resolutions. Imagine the whole of the people of Indiana farmers are in their fields busy gathering their that the same machinery is destined to confirm that there is no an array of 1856.

The Journal is of opinion that there is no At a regular meeting of this Council held. swept away in two years, and we may form harvest, the town people are necessarily idle, trol that same party in the canvass of 1856 .meeting was gotten up. The representation routed horse, foot and dragoon, in fifty-six. defending and spreading it, we are defending stances are taken into consideration. this earth, not the inside but the outside, embraced but a small portion of the State, New Albany Tribune. and it is scarcely known there was such a It will be seen from the above that Mr. meeting among the working men of the coun-

of life, spirit, and resolution. Their resolutions of 1856. We wish our readers to they were, and the speeches fell flat and stale | The deduction drawn by the Tribune is by teacher of morality, and the further pur- upon the ear. They did, however, what no means a plausible one. In the economy The meeting was essentially and distinctly however, is not a good or a correct one the Asbury University, together with some of "replenishing and multiplying"—and his Abolition. All former disguises and covers politics. The fact that a set of broken down account of the length of what is already writ- guilty of great ingratitude in refusing to bail their speeches, and their resolutions all look- a demoralized but once hopeful organizatheir beloved at d faithful brother out of jail. ed steadfastly in THAT direction. Their main tion, and the repudiated reprobates and trick-K. N. preachers and teachers of morals are was imported all the way from Boston on sters of the only national party in our couneminently the chaps to teach Democrats the purpose to abolitionize them. He is the newway of salvation, and NATHAN BROWN is a ly elected Senator by the notorious Abolition, people and in controlling a State election, is very fair specimen of the K. N. morality Know Nothing legislature of Massachusetts, no reason why the same men and the same and is all over, on this subject, one of the deception should meet with a similar success most ultra men in the Nation. He seemed The Putnam Republican Banner, a reg- to regard the entire demonstration before him at another effort. A large portion of the men ular out and out Know Nothing paper, and in its true and proper light, that of an Aboli- who voted with the Opposition, during the late canvass, were honest in their convictions So long ago, he said, there was not a man and little dreamed that they were made the lupes of such men as MILTON GREGG-the The last resolution, which relates to nat- who dared assert what we now declare to mere tools by which the machinations of seuralization, is rather "miscellaneous," but day, that slavery is sectional, and Freedom cret Jacobin Clubs in their midst should be "Deceive a man once, and it's your fault-overwhelming majority that the abolition of deceive him again, and it's his own," The slavery in the District of Columbia would be people are rapidly opening their eyes to a a violation of national faith. Isaac Hill said realization of the pitiable and degrading part that not one man in five hundred had any sympathy with anti-slavery men. Mr. Pierce many of them have been made to play in said that none but silly women had any sym. the unholy schemes of unprincipled demapathy with the anti-slavery movement. He gogues. The Know Nothing party has no has probably seen some cause since, to political principles. It was organized upon change his opinion. (Laughter.) In that the cry of anti-papacy, and built upon the State all parties had acted in beautiful and harmonious concert, and by a vast majority avowed design of proscription of fereigners. had put three true friends of freedom in Con- The men, like MILTON GREGG and GEORGE ss. Indiana may lay her hand upon the D. PRENTISS, who, in times past, have deheart of New Hampshire, and she will find clared it a principle of the Whig party, to that heart beat responsive to her own. The speaker then alluded to the success of the Republicans in Ohio and Indiana, and said ble immunity to those classes of our citizens, that these glorious results had been obtained were the first to embrace an organization stops not at Nebraska; indeed, his speech place. Their former declarations were repumade that a subordinate, minor issue—he is diated, and with the hope of enlarging the looking to something much more practical arena of their action, Know Nothingism was and effective, the abolition of slavery in the saught to be made National. Men of the District of Columbia. Again he says:

"I want to see a union of all the people on the Union, this question. There is no PARTY now existing that can carry any election against the North, the whole North, and nothing but the Administration. 'The Whigs can't do it.'- North. They fought in Convention at Philadel-'The Whig party lives,' as Webster said, 'on- phia and split in two. The Wilson, Colfax ly in history.' They could not do it, even if and VAILEITES continue Northern Know they made Pierce their candidate. (Laughter.) But Pierce will not be the candidate for Nothingism upon the sectional issue, and the proscription of Catholics is ignored, and of for-"The question is, how are we to defeat the eigners almost forgotten. The GREGGITES too weak. They are few in numbers, though no consequence. The N. Y. Herald says their policy I believe will yet be impressed that the split will eventuate in the benefit of upon this country. But the time is not yet, the tricksters. That now, the Jacobin Clubs ive. I hope to see the the day when we shall have in each State "will fall back each or its own prinin New England, and in all the country, a common union upon a common platform, of all the friends of freedom. And when the can nominate a candidate for the Presidency day shall come, as come it will, when the without a declaration of principle, and that "on the breed of dough-faces has been exterminated, great question of the distribution of eighty millions when we present a united front to the South, of spoils, THERE WILL BE NO DIVISION, NO SPLIT, have noble and liberal men in the South. No FLARE UP." Mr. GREGO acknowledges the who will meet us fairly, and respect our force of the argument-recommends it about nice shades of words. We want to de-

liance in the awards of the place to be assignfeat the black power with a name and a man, and once defeated, the battle will be ended ed him by the secret conspirators of the forever. Establish the fact that the power State. is not invincible, and the Republic passes out | Does he presume that such brazen atrocity as is displayed by him and his Know Nothing confederates will be tolerated by the peobut tells them "the time is not vet," when the ple? They were deceived in fifty-four, bu "anti-slavery party" can effect them. The they can now perceive the cats-paw use Democracy is yet too strong for it, too which they were turned, and thousands who strong for the "American party," too strong were then led into bogs and quagmires by for the Whigs-"the Whig party lives only the Will 'o-the-wisp which dazled their po-It must be done by a union of all of last year, litical vision, will turn with loathing upon and THEN, yes, THEN what? Why, being the objects of their delusion, and give their united upon "a national and liberal basis," votes and their influence to the party which the District of Columbia, nor yet at the oth-

The above is clear, frank, and explicit.-

dangerous, suicidal, fatal to the Union as we | tire country. Professor W. C. Larrabee. Whilst in Greencastle, during a couple of ty; these are his objects and aims; this is what he wants a union for, and this union, days of the past week, we were most hospitably and delightfully entertained at er terrritories, nor at the repeal of the Fugi- whose labors is the promotion of the interest tive slave law; no, not at all of these subjects, of the entire people and the welfare of the en-the proceedings of the Convention. Among of the day. The pope was scarcely mention- which for years have received the culturing present relax from their gravity. ed or referred to; he hasn't half as many care of the leisure moments of our old friend. The visitors from Indianapolis were hospieigners, they are not afraid of them any Nature is there imitated in the perfection tably entertained by JAMES A. Hongra, and longer at all; they only want to alter our of artistic carelessness, where the inspiriting Mr. M. Joyce, true hearted Democrats, and which must necessarily take the initiative .-State Constitution, so that they may not vote freshness of the primeval forest throws on genial gentlemen. all around its hallowing influence.

were paraded, and elucidated by one whom other noted, notorious, and out-and-out ous places tendered him in several State in history "-has no living existence-is there LIFE OF THOMAS JEFFERSON. Such a work, any sympathy, affiliation, friendshlp, or lean- so much needed at this juncture of our history, Convention we published a long extract from fice for the period of four years. ing towards such fellows as Wilson, Chase, and their followers, that you should be willing to march under their dark banners and ing to march under the properties of th black flags? What do you care about de- looked for with peculiar interest and re-

you, consent to follow the colors of men sions east of Crawfordsville, until the cash whom they, in their life times, denounced to subscription on those divisions is consideraby such a fusion-they want office, and they country, we ask such as these what they have intoxicated in the street. Over fifty persons of good faith and no better than robbery. his paper of the 5th, asks one of his contem- Will you shout yourselves hoarse over a plat- are already under imprisonment for this of- What more does the Journal ask? W them, wherever they might be, the hallowing What punishment is adequate to so hellish a poraries if he remembers anything which oc- form and under leaders, such as we have dearrested and fined.

Democratic Meeting at Farmersville,

Franklin Township, Marion County.

the meeting were a number from Moral the proceedings prove that the views of Sal- We hope every Council in the State will do charge of bigamy has six wives instead of the passed on what got the thing between the passed of the a procession of one hundred arrived at Far- of this meeting. mersville from Pleasant View, with martial music, and the stars and stripes flying. This voters who would not go beyond "the res- by the Convention at Philadelphia, and might pose of converting the "old liners" from their leaders intended, and what all might of nature and in mathematics, like causes Democracy, R. M. J. Duvall, and bore the therefore this phrase was inserted. banner was carried by that old wheel-horse of toration of the Missouri Compromise," and not have considered them as necessary to a We kad intended giving some account grievous iniquities. He has been serving the have known they would do, fused upon an are said to produce like effects. This rule, following inscription: "The Constitution and In order to show the duplicity of these in the Union in opposition to Political Priest- wire-workers we will republish the Indiana same. craft." The procession was marshaled by Republican platform in connection with the important statistics of public interest, but on its continuous interest, but o voted the Fusion ticket, but is now battling with the Democracy.

marched to a beautiful grove, where they were addressed by Lieutenant Governor WIL- May, 1854, endorsing and approving the else, put a stop to this excitement and agita-LARD, Governor WRIGHT, and our County Kansas-N Clerk, WM. STEWART.

to for many a day, and during two and a half men who will assert the rights of freedom, principles declared by said National Council. hours, he commanded the united attention of restore the Missouri Compromise, and refuse, the masses present. Some portions of his address were truly eloquent, and the pure Democratic truths as they fell from his lips, sank deep in the hearts of his hearers. vention of the 13th of July, 1854, as well as the Convention of this year, were Abolitionists, Know Nothings, and the disappointed politicans of all parties. They made an issue Nebraska bill. Mr. WILLARD then proceeded to discuss at length the merits of this bill. There was but should be made the field for contest upon With all our love of freedom and hatred of slave- a continued train of faction and revolution slavery, or whether the people of the Territoand settle all questions affecting their own domestic affairs. National men of all parties, should unite in opposition of sectionalism.

He said that the Missouri Compromise was a measure forced by the North upon the South, but two Senators from those States vo ting for it. But aside from this, geographical nestions were wrong, and should always be

Gov. WILLARD then briefly alluded to th dangerous tendencies of secret political parties, and took occasion to handle the Know Nothings without gloves. From the squirming of one or two of the Dark Lantern order. administration? The American party alone came in-principle with them is a matter of low mutterings of discontent, we should judge that this portion of his speech was very affect-> tive of Indiana to make. "The Union, the dominance of the abolition feeling in the whole Union and nothing but the Union's | Convention.

He spoke of the conservative and honora-New England fanaticism, and exhorted her itizens not to permit her to fall from her

He enlarged on the dangers of sectionalism and of the war of races and religion, and quoted the memorable words of Mr. JEFFERSON. "This momentous question like a fire bell in the night awakened and filled me with terror. I considered it as the knell of the Union. It is hushed indeed for a moment; but this is a reprieve only, not the final sentence. A geographical line, coinciding with a part of the democracy of that State, the Almarked principle, moral and political, once conceived and held up to the angry passions of men, will never be obliterated, and every new irritation will mark it deeper and deeper."

the smiles mantle on the faces of his attentive re-estal

the residence of our late State Superin- The meeting closed with a delightful talk tical wisdom will suggest a mode of action tendent of Public Instruction. It has never of half an hour from William Stewart, full other leading and ultra Abolitionists of the been our happiness to behold a more rural of good humor and shrewduess, which made in fitful showers upon us, bathing the soul with energitival daws, and giving birth in a told to your teeth by such men, that your once to his nature. He will run out the sands potent attempts to turn the phrase against proud party "now lives only in history," and of his life in the home of the thirty years of ourselves. Before the Convention, our neighbors men and sound principles." moment, to those celestial flowers of the heart whose seed are found in the divinely in heart whose seed are found in the divinely in moment, to those celestial flowers of the his manhood, retired from the angry content out of the six Trustees, and that one vote was are, not merely coalesing either, but being our of the six Trustees, and that one vote was are, not merely coalesing either, but being that you can do nothing without coalescing—his manhood, retired from the angry contents of the bors had it in their power to repel the charge; herited and impulsive sentiments of youth.

After a ride of twenty minutes in the cars

The effect of all, however, was destroyed and

Institution has the best effect on those who have the strength to bear it. It is found protoo tender-footed to give any direct vote centoo tender-footed to give any chusetts, and Chase, of Ohio? Your leaders It is not in the power, however, of Pro- accusation of silent imbecility. They say To the Clerks, and other officers of the several in this State, from the cross-roads, towns, and villages went to Indianapolis and made the fessor Larraber to be idle. He has already nothing of their own views, but content themtransfer last Friday, while you were at home progressed to some extent, with several lit- selves with asking us "if we think slavery is at work, WILL YOU RATIFY IT? Did you send erary works, which will at some future day right morally and politically and in accordanybody from this county to Indianapolis to appear before the public. A proposition has ance with the principles of Christianity,"— at the last general election in October, 1854, cial edification of the Journal, and recom- ter 115, Revised Statutes, approved may 15, 1852, which reads as follows; "That every Massachusetts and other States pretend to mended the whole speech to their careful person elected to fill any office in which a say that the whole of the recent excitement of fifteen minutes duration.

Our remarks here are designed to be general and not to apply particularly and specifical and christian aspect far better than the subject of the specifical and christian aspect far better than the whole of the recent excitement that the whole of the condition of that your should turn your s we could express them ourselves.

on which it is the duty of the Fusion Press this decision, will be corrected if returned to an inviduous desire to come down upon the

"We firmly believe that the Democratic know the Democrats never would give it to governments as may suit them without reserved and openized is ado. I would give it to governments as may suit them without reserved counties. gency. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were to go forth to battle amid ing burned to death, in Brant, near that city. They were the sound in the Brant, near that city is a second in the sound in the Brant, near that city is a second in the Brant in the Brant, near that city is a second in the Brant in the Br who want no office, who were Whigs from principle—Whigs not because they loved Al. forced, and there can be no doubt of its good admit slave States as promptly as free States; promptly attended to. they were to come in contact with the pas- to the suspicion that the wretch who applied because they honestly thought Whig princi- allude to the prompt arrest and punishment proper law, and that the abolition of slavery ples would promote the best interest of the by fine or imprisonment of all parties found in the District of Columbia would be a breach the platform of the Convention.

Double Dealing.

We had the pleasure of attending a very Albany Tribune, contrasted with the editorials Council of K. N's. of Vigo county, it will be pleasant re-union of the Democracy in Far- of the Journal of this city, will exhibit seen that the Know Nothings in that section mersville, on Saturday last. The attendance the political trickery of the Fusion party refuse to swallow the dose of niggerology was large, and the most entire harmony seem- in a very striking manner. Honesty forbids prepared for them by the State Council. We may be twice as large as the truth, and yet up a large meeting at Indianapolis, on any than is the custom of that journal, that the with that allowance it is frightful to think of. public occasion, for while the governed the Republican party of 1854 and bell-wethers of the flock. This was a truly essential difference between the Ohio and In- on Thursday night, July 19, 1855, the followwar cease to excite us because they are as old lineism was knocked gratifying circumstance, for the creed of Dediana platforms, and this is a correct view of line resolutions were adopted by a majority price or no-price at all. This is the way this into fits in 1854, just so sure will they be mocracy is the creed of our fathers, and in the subject, when all the attendant circumand spreading the opinions of the wise old The spirit of the Fusion Convention was regarding the action of the State Council as

But it was necessary to conciliate certain

Here is the platform:

"Resolved. That we are uncompromisingly The Church not being large enough to hold opposed to the extension of Slavery; and the crowd, they formed into procession and further, that we utterly repudiate the pistform of principles adopted by the self-styled Democratic Convention on the 24th day of ted at Philadelphia, will, more than any thing

"Resolved That we will waive all former Gov. WILLARD's speech was one of the party predilections, and, in concert, by all ablest we have had the pleasure of listening the Federal Government in the hands of maintain our organization, in support of the

"Resolved, further, That our Revolutionary ancestors regarded freedom as national, and formal introduction unnecessary. Slavery as sectional. That we will steadevery attempt to reverse it."

The New Albany Tribune says.

platform as that."

Compromise was "the important point conten- shout of freedom, dubbing his party with the ded for." On the contrary we believe it was title of Republicans, and what did his subslipped in as a single phrase, surrounded by a jects gain by his political scheme and bloody host of high sounding generalities for the purpose of being overlooked, except by certain polifishing it up as occasion might require.

It cannot be doubted that an honest restoration of the Compromise implies the permis- America and Mexico. Mexico has been persion of slavery south of the line. But the petually distracted by factions, political contenance to this construction, because they will be with us if we become the dupes of are careful to omit the words, "into territory sectional party demagogues. secured to freedom by that compromise," It is vanity to talk about freedom after we which were in the platform of 1854, after the set aside our National Constitution words "extension of slavery."

Here is the resolution of 1854. The words Gov. WRIGHT's speech was thoroughly na. italicized are omitted, our readers will per- bates of our most distinguished Statesmen tional in its whole tenor, and just such a ceive in the platform of this year, very speech as it was fitting for the Chief-Execu- significant omissions, as it betokens the pre-

Resolved, That we will waive all former treatment of them within any of the States, party pre lilections, and in concert, by all law- it remaining with the several States to proul means seek to place every branch of the vide any regulations therein, which human ble position which Indiana had occupied as a Federal Government in the hands of men and true policy may require." sort of moral break-water against the tide of who will assert the rights of Freedom, restore This resolution was a response of Congress the Missouri Compromise, and refuse, under to the memorial of Benjamin Franklin and all circumstances to tolerate the extention of others.

What does the Journal say to Mr. GREGG's

In response to a resolution passed by a dem-rial spirit or with any tenacity on the part of to chime it in. the democrats of Columbia for this particular in relation to which they invite consultation and a comparison of opinion. This is right, and we trust the democrats of the State will free-The Governor's remarks were interspered by and in a friendly spirit canvass this and all with several pleasant anecdotes which made other propositions for composing strife and ishing in our State government the ascendancy of their principles. In due time, we doubt not, a conciliatory spirit and prac-action of the conventions which have been called by the two State committees, the reponsibility will rest to a great extent on the If that body can bring itself to act with the magnanimity which public sentiment demands and New Mexico, they will have instituted Of a piece with this Convention is the acearnest of peace and good-will to which the likely to effect their safety and happiness."

Executive Department, Indiana. Indianapolis, July 20, 1855.

The Supreme Court having decided at their late term, upon the application of the Clerk of the Allen Circuit Court, who was elected do this? Did anybody ask your leave? Were you consulted at all about it? And if it is really true that the Whig party "only lives really true that the Whi in October, will be commissioned for the full their most enlightened Statesman-not that Any commission that may have been issued | tunate slaves of the South than the State of

Nor TRUE.-The story going the rounds

WON'T SWALLOW THE NIGGER-By the fol-The following paragraph from the New lowing resolutions, passed by the County lacking one vote of being four to one! These upon their original footing as a National Party, the spirit of fanatical and radical abolition .- seceding from the original order and the origi-Franklin Township borders upon the Shelby County line, and among those composing the meeting were a number from Moral

the meeting were a number from Moral

> Resolved, That while we do not, individually, agree with all the opinions and sertiments expressed in the resolutions adopted national organization of the American Party, yet, as they have been adopted by a national Convention of the party, we will support the

Resolved, That we are heartily tired of excitement and agitation on the subject of slavery-that we will by all the just means in our power, discountenance the same, because it is destructive of the harmony of the country and dangerous to the Union-and that we believe that the organization of our party upon the basis of the Resolutions adop-

Resolved. That we cannot follow the State lawful means seek to place every branch of Council, but hereby declare that we will For the Indiana State Septimes.

MESSES EDITORS:-I am not personally acquainted with either of you, yet I deem a

For many years past I have renounced my Mr. W. said those who composed the Con- fastly adhere to their policy and firmly resist political connection with all political partizens, for reasons their continued jealousies and war upon each other has induced me to 'The Indiana State Sentinel is quite correct believe that their leading object is not the in saying that the restoration of the Missouri love of country, and at some future period Compromise is the important point contended | they would render the administration of our against the Democratic party on the Kansas- for in the platform of the Republican party in several relations uncertain. I have always this State, as adopted on the 13th inst. The found experience to be a good teacher, and Ohio platform differs from ours in, that it does by it I am advised that reason has to refer to not insist upon a restoration of the Missouri the past to enable it to come at just conclu-Compromise, but simply declares against the sions for the future. It is a common sense one great question now before the American increase of slave territory, and the admission conclusion that there can be no good derived people, and that was whether Congress of any more slave States into the Union .- from unstable governments, such as keep up

The Sentinel never said that the Missouri by mock trial beheaded their king under the

Perhaps France has been more stormy and barbarous in her revolutions than any other ticians whose interest would be promoted by nation-what has she gained by her inhuman But we have examples nearer home, South

I have been a voter in Indiana for several years, during which time my attention has "That Congress have no authority to inter-

Slavery into territories secured to Freedom by Now, gentlemen, it appears plausible to me that compromise. interfere with slavery, she cannot have authointerpretation? The Journal will not answer States, the resolution to which I refer I think us except by squibs; will it answer GREGG? | makes it just as criminal for Congress to dictate to a new State as to despoil an old one, Give Congress authority to muzzle a new ocratic mass-meeting held in Hudson, New the same rule will knock the old States into

Who ever heard of slavery, as it was originally admitted and held, being a test of our "We do not understand from the resolutions | republic ? No one I presume, until the pothat this proposition is put forth in a dictato- litical leaders of the latter-day saints aime

I challenge Mr. Greelev or any other Abo-Memorable words, worthy to be engraved form of action, but rather as a suggestion of a lition editor, to place their finger on the date when or where Congress rejected either of our slave States up to the year 1820.

I am well aware at this time, that many of would be willing to hear one from the dead; however, I think there can be no harm in reiterating the wise policy of our deceased friends. General Taylor, in the Presidential cal schemes to accomplish; if elected he would carry out in full the political doctrines of his Gentlemen, notice his corrobative message of curring even the suspicion of corrupt bargain- abstain from the introduction of topics of a ing, will result in placing our beloved but sectional character, which has hitherto been misgoverned State under the guardianship of producing painful agitations in the public mind, and I repeat the solemn warning of the first and most illustrious of my predecessors against furnishing any grounds for characterizing parties by geographical distinctions."

Gentlemen, I here present you the views of an honest statesman, and a true patriot in the full sense, and one who had often hazarded his life in defence of his country. This portion of the President's message was

Webster, Cass, and Calhoun up to his last the vacancy caused by the death of the late breath, whose experience and superior skill incumbent, that said Clerk so elected at the as statesman, has never been doubted, then Several days before the meeting of the last October election, was entitled to said of- why desert them and take up with the political dogmas of the State of Massachusetts, who has always been unsteady and disposed

Therefore, all officers provided for in the was ever thought of. In 1850, they rejected Constitution, elected at the general election the Fugitive slave law, and burnt in efficy they had any more sympathy for the unforto think we have only three political parties The position of the Democratic party is legal questions, will be given by the Attorwell known. They desire no action of Con- nev General, by writing to him at this place. If in order, I will use the freedom to suggest the lessons they had learned within the College walls, would bear them, in the humble Traitors to the Senate as by increased, for which vigorous efforts will be immediately made, along the scheme of a Southwho once called themselves Whigs, may gain lege walls, would bear them, in the humble of the Gerks is again called be immediately made, along the whole length of the Senate as by increased, for which vigorous efforts will be immediately made, along the whole length of the Clerks is again called be immediately made, along the whole length of the line.—Cramfordsville Journal.

Traitors to the country? Some few men, in the humble of the degrading, sneakto the editor what I think would be immediately made, along the whole length of the line.—Cramfordsville Journal. citizens, and to let the inhabitants form such the furnishing to this Department, the evi- nent parties in North America, to-wit: The dence of the reception of the laws in the Northern nullifiers against the Union. It is consciousness of intellectual power, through every trial, and sustain them in every emerevery trial, and sust of Ryublicans, but I cannot conceive that their progress is anything more than new blinds put up to shade old windows.

OTA tradesman having sunk his shop of the papers that the "fat woman" who lately died in Ohio was insured in Hartford, for floor a couple of feet announces that " in congreen as all that. She weighed six or eight sequence of recent improvements, goods will be sold considerably lower than formely.

Very respectfully yours, JOSEPH A. WRIGHT.

hundred pounds .- Hartford Times.